A dear friend, fellow Airman, brother in Christ that is dearly missed. Enclosed is a note I received from him in 2020 " Great to hear from you, Paul. It has been a time. Am still under the eather with Bronchitis (again and again), but God is on the throne of Grace. Take care, and talk to you later."

“ Brother Bill Hanna has been a very special friend. We become acquainted attending Baptist Tabernacle or which is now known as Parkway Baptist. Early in our friendship he became interested in joining us in our prison ministry and we have many wonderful memories doing that until Covid hit. He was very supportive with my wife's 4-H Club. Each Dec they would go to Magnolias Assistant Home where he would introduce Betty and the club and lead the singing of Christmas Carols. He loved animals and was especially excited to come out to see the baby kids and have a part in naming them. We are so blessed to have Bro Bill in our lives and the great fellowship through the many years!
