He was a devoted husband of 65 years to Mable whom he had known and adored almost all of his life. He graduated from St. Paul’s High School in Hollywood, SC and joined the Naval Reserves. He then served as a magistrate for Charleston County for many years. In his 30s, he enrolled in Baptist College and obtained his Bachelor’s Degree. Often he did this work for free or in return for delicious farm produce from his cash poor clients. Macky spent 40 years doing this with integrity, wise cracks and infectlous humor. He also served a Masonic Master for Jacksonboro Lodge 206 AFM. Macky was an avid golfer and a member of Stono Ferry for many years. In addition to his wife, Mable, survivors include four children: Yvonne Hill Herold

(Michael) of Daniel Island; William McAlister "Bubba" Hill (Barbara) of Ravenel; George Thomas "Tommy" Hill (Teresa) of Ravenel; and Christina "Chrissy" Marie Hill of London, England. Eleven grandchildren; Jennyffer, Audrey, Mac, Harlan, Brennan, Chase, Chelsa, Jackson, Mason, Alice, and Daphne and three great-grandchildren: Damien, Ashara, and Camilla and many nieces and nephews. “ I was deeply saddened last night (15Sep22) to learn from the September, 2022, issue of the South Carolina Bar magazine of Mackey's passing. We were classmates in the USC School of Law Class of 1974 and I have enjoyed and greatly benefited from knowing him since 1971. Mackey was a fine and genteel gentleman of good humor and an excellent lawyer who was a living tribute to and exemplary example of the honor, respect, and ethics of the practice of law and helping people. He will be greatly missed, as it is unlikely that we shall see such a gentleman again. Tom Stoney

“ My condolences to the family and friends of William Hill. I pray God continues to comfort and strengthen the family during this time of bereavement. May the many cherished and loving memories of William continue to comfort his family and friends. A comforting promise is stated at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. The former things have passed away." May you all have calming and pleasant thoughts during this time.

“ We are so very sorry to hear of the enormous loss of Macky Hill. He was a beloved and cherished husband, Daddy and Granddaddy. I will always very fondly remember the absolute ball of a time we all had with Mable and Macky, and the extended Hill clan, at Chrissy’s wedding celebrations in Charleston. Macky’s infectious smile and natural charm, as a true Southern gentleman, made every guest feel special and completely at home. Our deepest love is with the entire Hill family at this difficult time. We wish you all peace and comfort. Love, Keely, Augusta and Hamish

“ My Daddy always said you can tell more about a man’s character on the ball field than in church. Mackey Hill was a Gentleman on the golf course, and in Life. May God bless his Family, and his Memory.
