

William Leon Koontz

January 4, 1944 - March 31, 2024

William Leon Koontz passed away peacefully on March 31st, 2024, at the age of 80. Born January 4th, 1944, in High Point, NC, he was the son of the late Clarence and Patricia Koontz.

Bill was a strong, independent man, who had a passion for many things in his life.

He was an avid woodworker and would tinker around in his garage every chance he got. He attended Monterey High School in California and went on to serve our country in the US Coast Guard afterwards. He also enjoyed volunteering for his local fire department, building and flying model airplanes, and most of all, telling jokes with his friends and family. Bill enjoyed traveling as well, especially the Smoky Mountains. His priority in life was caring for his family and being an absolutely wonderful husband to his wife of 59 years, Wanda Sue Koontz.

He leaves behind his loving children, Sabrina Vegis and Brian Koontz (Robyn); grandchildren: PFC Chris Vegis, Tanner Vegis, Emma Koontz, Jude Koontz, Jaxon Koontz, and Jett Koontz; as well as 2 siblings, Elizabeth McBride and Roseanne Greer (Ben).

He was preceded in death by his loving parents; a son-in-law, Michael Vegis and his grandfather, Gordan Smith.

A Memorial Service will be held at Miles Road Baptist Church on Wednesday, April 3rd, 2024 at 11:00AM. Located at 816 Miles Jamison Road, Summerville, SC 29485
