“ I sailed with Capt Niemeyer back when I was a cadet at the USMMA in 2000 - my friend and I were sailing partners and assigned to the SS Sam Houston, where Capt Niemeyer was running things, we called him Capt or Capt Nemo. He was the best man I ever sailed with, and I am grateful to have gotten to know him, even if only for a few months - a true sailor. Too many stories to recount them all, but I remember he took us out in India and Thailand and paid for everything, and showed us an amazing time. He told us a lot of stories, and he taught me a lot of lessons, but what stands out most was just to enjoy life and be a good friend. I happened to be thinking of him this past week and googled him, and I was so sad to learn of his passing. Wish I had the chance to tell him what a great guy he was and how much I appreciate getting to know him - even if just briefly. My condolences to the family. Fair winds and following seas, Captain.

“ My sincere sympathies to the whole family. "Willie" was a classmate at the United States Merchant Marine Academy. I will never think about him without a smile on my face. He was quick witted and had a tremendous sense of humor. You have crossed the final bar Captain! ramjet1954@gmail.com

“ I was devastated to learn of Willie's passing and offer my deepest sympathy to you all. I was his roommate at Kings Point our plebe year and we remain good friends. There are too many good times to remember. He was an original, who always spread laughter and loved life. As I am sure all of you do, I will miss him very much.

So sorry to hear of Willie's passing. We went to KP and spent time at MITAGS for license upgrades. He was a good friend and we had many good times in Baltimore together. May he rest in peace.

“ I have known Willie since I was 6 years old. We were good friends during our days at Summerville High School, but I only saw him occasionally in our later years. Willie never changed - always liked an audience. He was always fun to be around and liked to push the envelope to see how people would react (and just to entertain himself). Willie was one of a kind - the world is a much duller place without him. We will miss him.

“ Willie and I were close friends in high school but different colleges, different careers, and different places prevented us from seeing each much after graduation. I have great memories of his wit, his smarts, and his devilish nature that we all enjoyed. Riding to school in the Rorvair (the only Corvair at Summerville High) was an adventure as well as the weekend clay pits camping trips, the nights at the Pool Hall, and the weekly football game where we could always find a new way to get in trouble.

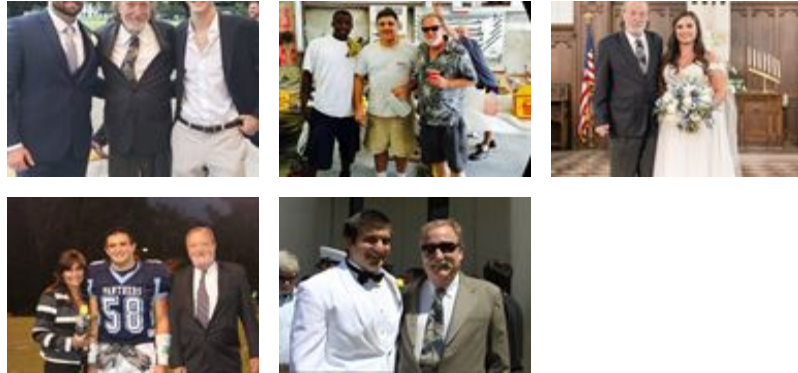

Since his passing he has been on my mind constantly filling me with regret that we have not spent the time together that I think we would have both enjoyed. Lives have a way of doing that but I will always cherish my memories and the time we had together growing up. Rest in Peace Willie. You will be missed. My condolences to his family

“ Willie and George were young boys and raised up as a part of the Goose Creek POMFLANT family while their mother, Carol, was employed there. I remember when Willie graduated from high school, was accepted into the academy, when his career took off and when he became the captain of a ship. His parents were very proud of him, and rightly so as he was strong evidence of excellent parenting. My sincere sympathy to the family. Barbara Moyer. .
